

Locals

The Walluku Card Club will meet next Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Penhallow.

Judge Edings went to Honolulu on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving. He will probably return early next week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Craig Bowdish were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baldwin at their mountain home, Luana.

The Women's Aid Society of the Union Church will meet with Mrs. Martinson next Wednesday afternoon, December 2nd.

Dr. H. Clemens, the dentist, left this week for San Francisco on important business. He stated that he expected to return within a few weeks.

F. P. Rosecrans, of Paia, who went to Honolulu last week to attend the ceremonial session of the Shriners, incidentally annexed a fine pair of antlers at the Elks lodge while in the city.

J. N. S. Williams spent several days this week at Hana, on business connected with the Kaeleku mill. He returned yesterday evening to Honolulu from Lahaina, going overland via Ulupalakua.

The committee of ladies in charge of the floor for this evening at the Boy Scout entertainment, will consist of Mrs. O. J. Whitehead, Mrs. A. Garcia, Mrs. James Taylor, and Miss Mary E. Hoffman.

Prof. F. G. Krauss, of the College of Hawaii, spent the first part of the week at his homestead at Kulaha, leaving on Wednesday for Hilo where he is one of the judges in the Hawaii County Fair, now going on.

H. B. Penhallow arrived home from Honolulu on Tuesday where he recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. He made a splendid recovery, being now practically recovered from the effects of the operation. Juno Salmo, the acrobatic contortionist who has been at the Walluku Orpheum this week, is one of the most skillful men in his line ever seen in the islands. His amazing stunts were witnessed by several capacity houses.

Arrested For Highway Robbery

Four Filipinos were arrested at Lahaina this week by police officer Baptista, and are held on suspicion of having held up a Japanese for the purpose of robbery, a week ago yesterday. The Japanese had just received his pay, but he had concealed the money in his shoe, so the highwaymen got nothing for their trouble. The men were masked at the time, but it is reported that two of the men under arrest have confessed.

STORM INTERFERES WITH SHIP-PING.

The storm on Monday and Tuesday of this week prevented the Claudine from making her usual landings on the windward coast of Maui, with the exception of Hana. The swell was very heavy in Kahului harbor for a time, washing over the breakwater and carrying away a temporary railway track which had been laid there preparatory to repairing some slight damage caused by the storm several weeks ago.

A strong wind at Lahaina caused some little damage, and put the wireless station out of commission for a portion of one day.

The Pollyanna Party

One of the unique social affairs of the season was the "Pollyanna Party" on Wednesday afternoon given by Mrs. Enos Vincent and Mrs. A. C. Warner, at the home of the latter in Walluku. When it is remembered that Pollyanna is the champion optimist of modern literature, with a motto of "Be Glad that it Isn't Worse," or something of the kind, one has a key to the program of the afternoon. Mrs. Howell won by a close margin as the prize Pollyannaist of the gathering.

Delicious refreshments helped out the Pollyanna idea very materially, and the party broke up with everybody converted, at least for the time being, to the doctrine of cheerfulness. Those invited to the party were: Mrs. W. H. Field, Mrs. W. L. West, Mrs. R. B. Dodge, Mrs. H. B. Penhallow, Mrs. D. H. Case, Miss Crickard, Mrs. W. A. McKay, Mrs. H. H. Taylor, Mrs. V. A. Vellousen, Mrs. G. K. Trimble, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. C. D. Lufkin, Mrs. J. C. Villiers, Mrs. F. Pencock, Mrs. W. Crawford, Mrs. Geo. Weight, Mrs. A. Hansen, Mrs. Streubeck, Miss Turner, Mrs. Gossin, Miss B. Drinkle, Miss A. Whistler, Miss I. Wodehouse, Mrs. W. J. Cooper, Mrs. Weddick, Miss Anna Streubeck, Mrs. G. Wilbur, Mrs. A. G. Martinson, Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. W. F. Crockett.

Maui's Big Roselle Crop Is Attracting Attention

The first of the roselle crop is just coming on the market and as the season only lasts a month, now is the time for all housekeepers to put up a large supply of this delicious fruit in jelly and jam to last throughout the year.

Although the roselle has been successfully grown in Hawaii for a number of years, the fruit has not received the recognition from our housekeepers that it deserves, according to the Star-Bulletin. In addition to making a beautiful dark red jelly or jam, the fruit is used for making sherbet and a delightful temperance drink which should be used by the people of Hawaii. Roselle jam has a flavor similar to cranberry sauce and is much cheaper.

Roselle is being cultivated on practically all the islands in small quantities and on Maui approximately 200 acres are being harvested this year, to be dried and shipped to the states, for manufacture into a temperance drink, and perhaps other products.

Roselle should cost about 6 cents a pound to the consumer. The following recipes taken from the 1907 annual report of the Hawaii Experiment Station may be of interest. Additional recipes may be found in the Hawaiian Cook Book.

"Roselle Jam.—Wash six pounds of roselles, open and remove the seed pod. The weight of flesh will be about three pounds. Add two cups of water to the berries and cook about an hour until reduced to a soft pulp. Measure the cooked fruit and add 1 1/2 cups sugar to each cup of fruit. Cook for 20 minutes."

"Six pounds of roselles will make seven pounds of jam or eleven half-pint cupsfuls."

"Roselle Jelly.—Wash and seed four pounds of roselles. The weight of the flesh will be about two pounds. Add four cups of hot water and boil to a pulp. Strain the whole through a cloth bag, without pressing. Measure the juice and boil it continuously 20 minutes. Then add one cup of sugar for each cup of juice. The sugar should be heated in the oven before adding it to the juice, so that the boiling will not be interrupted. Cook until, on testing the consistency of the liquid by pouring from a spoon, the last drop adheres to the spoon. Remove from the fire and pour into jars. Four pounds of roselles will make two pounds of jelly or two half-pint cupsfuls."

Kula Notes

(Special Correspondence)

WAILUKA, Nov. 27.—The talk on poultry keeping announced in last week's "News" was given in the Chinese Union Church at Kookoa on Saturday evening last. There was a good attendance. In addition to the lantern pictures of buildings, appliances and methods as used on the mainland, figures were given of the cost on Maui for the materials for poultry houses of different sizes, and of a design suitable for Kula climate. A few home-made poultry appliances were shown.—an "A" coop for a hen and chicks, a box hopper and tin can drinking fountain.

The meeting of the Kula Farmers' Cooperative Association was a very pleasant informal meeting held on the lawn at "Erehwon." About twenty-five members were present, and because of the small attendance no matters of importance were settled finally aside from the adoption of the constitution recommended by the Board of Directors.

The meeting was fortunate in having present Mr. W. O. Aiken, to whose encouraging words and sound advice all gave the closest attention. The agent exhibited the returns received to date showing that corn had sold for $38 a ton, hogs 13 1/4 cents a pound and eggs at 60 cents a dozen. A luncheon was planned for the next meeting which is to be held at the home of Mr. George Copp, Sunday, December 6, at 2 o'clock.

MRS. HAIR'S DINNER PARTY.

The home of Mrs. Millie B. Hair, Hamakua, was the scene of a most pleasant Thanksgiving party, on Thursday evening. The house had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, and an orchestra furnished music during the evening. Following the dinner, dancing and games were indulged in for several hours.

Among the guests were: Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Beeman, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Case, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Boyum, Miss Kerr, Miss Ella Crandall, Miss M. Taylor, Miss Coupe, Miss Elsie White, Miss G. Meinecke, Miss Dorothy Foster, Miss Thelma Boyum, Miss Dorothy Hair, Miss Margaret Hair, Mr. R. C. Bowman, Mr. J. Patterson, and Mr. Edward Hair.

Red Cross Committee Close War Fund Jan. 1st

The committee which has been receiving subscriptions on Maui for the American Red Cross Association, announces that it will close its efforts, for the present, at least, on the first of the year. It asks that any who have not contributed to the fund, and desire to do so, communicate with one of the members without delay. Up to the present time something between $400 and $500 has been raised. This money is sent directly to the Red Cross headquarters in Washington, and is for the general use of the organization, in relieving distress in Europe. It has nothing to do with the Red Cross Christmas sale, nor with any of the other war relief funds which have been raised in this Territory.

At the present time lists are in the hands of J. Patterson, of Hamakua, H. B. Penhallow, Walluku, the Baldwin National Bank, Kahului, and George O. Cooper, of Hana.

Another Fatal Runaway

Tanabe, a Japanese sewing machine agent, was killed and Kanimitu, a Japanese storekeeper, of Lahaina, was painfully injured in a runaway which occurred a week ago Thursday, near the Honokowai school house, Lahaina district.

The two men had been on a fishing trip and were returning in a wagon owned by Kanimitu, when the bridle bit broke, and the horse soon became unmanageable. Tanabe was thrown out and his skull fractured. He died a few hours later at the Lahaina hospital. The other Japanese was also thrown out and sustained a sprained wrist and various bruises.

Deputy Sheriff Ferreira and George Cummings, who were driving in an automobile in the district at the time, saw the last part of the runaway, and succeeded in stopping the horse, and took the injured man to the hospital.

FALLACY OF BIG ARMAMENT.

The Thanksgiving day service, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, on Thursday morning, was attended by a good congregation. There was a full choir, and the choral part of the service was an inspiration to worship.

Rev. R. B. Dodge, of the Walluku Union Church, read the lessons, and the Rector preached on the text "Offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the most High," Psalm 50:14. The subject of the sermon was one in which the preacher held that the present war was a sure witness to the most ordinary intelligence of the complete failure of the doctrine that the best means of promoting peace was to prepare for war, because such preparation carried the seed of war within itself. The doctrine was an alluring one, but illogical and illusory.

TRIED RECIPES

Porcupine Salad.—Select large, perfect tomatoes and cut in half. Lay the half of a tomato on a lettuce leaf with the glossy skin side uppermost. All over the back of the tomato "porcupine" tick tiny strips of celery and green pepper. Serve with mayonnaise at one side.—Kansas City Star.

White House Cake.—One half cup butter, one and one half cups sugar, three fourths cup milk, three cups pastry flour, three level teaspoons baking powder, whites of four eggs, one half teaspoon vanilla, one half teaspoon almond extract, gradually cream butter, add sugar until light, then add extract. Sift flour measure, add baking powder, sift three times, add milk and flour alternately to butter and sugar, beat eggs, sift and add to mixture. Beat mixture hard a few times to obtain a fine texture. Bake in a slow oven 45 minutes.—Los Angeles Express.

Ho Wto Whip Cream.—In the first place the cream should be at least twelve, preferably twenty-four hours old. It must be very cold and should be thick and rich. Whip it up in a cool place; when it begins to thicken perceptibly add the beaten whites of two eggs to each pint of cream. This gives it body and richness. Continue beating, adding at the last sugar and flavoring to taste.

Pepper Relish.—One dozen red peppers, one dozen green peppers, 15 medium onions. Remove all stems and seeds, and put through grinder. Pour boiling water on and let stand 10 minutes, drain. Add three cups vinegar, one cup and a half of sugar, three tablespoons salt. Boil for 15 minutes. Seal in small jars.—Chicago Herald.

On the Other Islands

Prison Directors Reappointed.

Governor Pinkham has re-appointed J. M. Dowsett and Chas. E. Wright, as members of the boards of prison inspectors, respectively, of the first (Oahu) and fourth (East Hawaii) circuits, for terms of two years each.

Promotion Committee Changes.

H. P. Wood, secretary of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, will leave about the first of the year for San Francisco, where he will take personal charge of the Committee's work. A. P. Taylor, who has been stationed on the coast for the past year looking after the Committee's work, will be recalled and will be given a position which contemplates the providing of entertainment for the tourists after they arrive in the islands. Mr. Wood, who is also chairman of the Hawaii commission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, will probably be absent from Honolulu most of next year.

Judge Ballou Coming Back.

Judge Sidney M. Ballou, who for the past several years has been stationed in Washington as the representative of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, arrived in Honolulu yesterday by the Siberia.

Breckons Kuhio's Secretary?

A rumor is current in Honolulu to the effect that R. W. Breckons is to go to Washington in the capacity of Delegate Kahanianole's private secretary. The ex-district attorney has not denied the story, and admits he would like to have the job.

Muir Brings Parasites.

Returning from an extended tour through the Orient, Frederick W. Muir, entomologist connected with the planters' experiment station, arrived in Honolulu last week with a number of parasites which he believes will be of considerable value to agriculturists in this Territory. He was away for nineteen months, traveling through Java, the Philippines, Japan, and Formosa. The chief object of his trip was for a parasite to combat the destructive anomala orientalis, of the sugar cane, and in this he was successful. He also brought parasites for the Japanese beetle which he believes will be valuable provided they can be successfully started here.

Governor Tabus Flight.

Although he had secured permission from the Treasury Department in Washington to make a flight in Honolulu, and had made other necessary arrangements, S. F. Samura, the Japanese airman, was prohibited from making his proposed flight last Sunday by an order issued by Governor Pinkham. It is understood that the Governor was acceding to wishes of the military authorities in his action. Honolulu Japanese were much incensed at the refusal, and a mass meeting condemned the move as one intended to discriminate against their race. Samura was first prevented from flying at the time the German cruiser Geier was bottled up in Honolulu harbor by the Japanese war vessels.

Governor Will Investigate Filipino Complaints.

The various complaints which have been sent to the Philippine islands to the effect that the Filipino laborers on the Hawaiian plantations are ill treated, is to be investigated by Governor Pinkham. It is understood that the Governor was acceding to wishes of the military authorities in his action. Honolulu Japanese were much incensed at the refusal, and a mass meeting condemned the move as one intended to discriminate against their race. Samura was first prevented from flying at the time the German cruiser Geier was bottled up in Honolulu harbor by the Japanese war vessels.

Alfred W. Eames Dead.

Alfred W. Eames, one of the pioneer pineapple planters in the Territory, died last Friday afternoon, at the Queen's Hospital in Honolulu following an operation. The funeral took place last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Eames came to the islands in 1898, and since that time made his home at Wailuku, as a homesteader, and where he was prominently identified with the development of the pineapple industry.

Pretty Wedding at Paia

A quiet wedding took place last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. P. C. Loeey in Paia when Mr. Stanley E. Scott of Haiku and Miss Harriet E. Apo of Makawao were pronounced man and wife by the Rev. A. Craig Bowdish, who used the beautiful ring service. Mr. P. C. Robertson acted as best man while Miss Mae Alana was the bridesmaid.

After refreshments had been partaken of by the several friends of the newly wedded couple, Mr. and Mrs. Scott left for their new home in Haiku amid the well wishes of the gathered company.

Mr. Scott is a machinist with Haiku Fruit & Packing Co. Mrs. Scott has for some time been one of the nurses and helpers at the Paia hospital.
